Remarks

Welcome to our Colonial meets Contemporary with Farmhouse Chic flair! These folks have an art for quality upgrades while keeping the look stylish and modern. Quietly situated on the lovely Peach Tree Lane Cul de Sac of Saucon Woods, this multi generational home enjoys nearly an acre of privacy with a fenced rear yard and a magnificent deck that overlooks it. Every step inside this home provides another interesting aspect beautifully curated for esthetic appeal and function. The main and upper floors cater to a family needing ample bedrooms and baths, multiple living areas, multiple dining options, and there's even a very special room for the pup of the house with a doggie wash station in the drop space room that serves also as a mud room. These floors are serviced by their own hvac zone, independent of the lower level. The dining room and the dinette area of the kitchen provide access to the 850 sq ft deck with recently reconstructed stairs down to the expansive, fenced rear yard. A shed at the very end of the yard is ideal for storage of your lawn mower. The lower level features an atrium, walk out panel of doors that creates generous lighting for the living area of this nearly 1700 sq ft single floor space complete with kitchen, living and dining rooms, bedroom with large bath and
